THE FAR FLUNG BATTLE LINE NOW INCLUDES SIBBALD

All Bertawan is in one or other of Two Hostile Camps

The calm and peaceful atmosphere of Sibbald which has prevailed ever since the town made its appearance on the map, and which, neither the great world war, nor any of the other calamitous happenings of the past few years, has in any measure disturbed, has lately been rudely shaken, and the residents are asking themselves whether there is a Chastanqua performance going on, or whether Sibbald has become one of the 17 fronts on which the armies of the Allies are fighting. The majority of opinion which it may be said is supported by considerable evidence, incline to the latter view. In the first place the generalissimo and supreme commander of hostilities is Mr. W. C. Fyfe, a returned soldier and a councillor of the Rural Municipality of Bertawan.
During his absence in Europe Mr.
Fyfe has pursued himself of the latest methods of carrying on a campaign, and has brought back, figuratively speaking, the latest fighting contrivances including the super campion with which the Germans have been bombarding Paris, the new one man tank to say nothing of hand grenades, gas, and machine guns.
A local revolver, of which more later, also made its appearance during the present hostilities.

It has been described how some weeks ago Mr. Fyfe quietly dropped a hand grenade in the midst of the Bertawan council during their peaceful deliberation in connection with the affairs under their charge. There have been some mistaken individuals who have hitherto supposed that a certain shot fired at Lexington during the unpleasantness between the American colonies and the mother country, was THE shot that was heard around the world. This opinion is now out of date and has been superseded and it will go down in history that the grenade exploded by Mr.
Fyfe at the Bertawan Council meeting at Sibbald, was THE shot that was heard all around the world, all opinions to the contrary notwithstanding.

The cause of the explosion is now definitely known. Coun. Fyfe objected to Coun. Twinn drawing money in payment for work done on the municipal roads by his team.
The amount in question was $250 and the Provincial ordinance to the contrary was clearly overlooked.

Lines were drawn at once and the opposing forces settled down for a long and bitter campaign. On one side General Fyfe commanded a force consisting of himself as leader, of himself as captain, and as lieutenant as a private, while on the other side there was lacking a leader but the force was numerous and consisted of the whole council and of almost the whole of Sibbald and a great many of the ratepayers of the municipality. While the opening engagement resulted in a defeat for the Fyfe forces who endeavored to have the council pass a resolution expelling Mr.
Twinn from the council, a brilliant series of victories has followed and the casualty list contains the names of the most prominent men of the municipality. Mr. Fyfe's forces are up to the present intact.

Out maneuvered in the first engagement, Gen. Fyfe found as ally the person of Magistrate Appleby before whom Mr. Twinn was called on for the charge of receiving money for the Council for the work of his team.
This was a distinct victory for Gen.
Fyfe, as Mr. Twinn was admonished to the extent of a $25 fine together with the incidental costs which made a total of some thirty seven dollars.
Quite a serious item considering the present state of the crops.

It may have been thought that after this victory for Gen. Fyfe the opposing forces would have yielded.

A fine day, large attendance of people and display of exhibits aided in making this the first fair day of the Oyen Agricultural Society on their new grounds, a splendid success.
The lay-out of the several departmental quarters of the new home afforded ample scope for the comfort and arrangement of the live stock, agricultural and horticultural products, ladies work and children's competitions. The Society is to be congratulated on the turnout of the people generally, from far and near, the exhibits that demonstrated that the community is well favored in the many lines shown.

There was a good showing of horses in the heavy drafts and mare and foal sections that would have been a credit to a fair of much larger dimensions; while the general purpose and other sections were also admirable and meritorious. Mr. A.
R. Galbraith of Edmonton, who was judge, said the people of this district were very fortunate in having such two splendid stud horses as "Aro Gibson" owned by Mr. Carter, and "Dunston" which is the property of the Oyen Clydesdale Syndicate. Such horses as these are few and would be considered as the first class exhibits in the city fairs.

The exhibits in the several breeds of cattle were of good quality and competition keen, showing that the Oyen district is forging ahead in this particular feature as it has already done in grain growing. The judge, Mr. B. McGorman of Innisfail, commented on the fine exhibits of stock and passed the remark that the cattle shown here yesterday was the best he had ever judged at any of the fairs this summer.

The swine, poultry and other pet stock were not as numerous in number, but were of good stock as a rule, suggesting that the populace is coming along favorably in these very important branches of farming enterprise.

Grains, grasses, roots and vegetables showed up well in the several exhibits displayed, rounding one and all that this section of Alberta is a wonder for productivity, as evidenced by the fine samples of grasses and grains in sheaf, and considering the earliness of the season the display of roots and vegetables was also noteworthy.

It was felt that the competition in dairy produce should have been greater, considering the ample display of dairy cattle and fowls, etc. However, it takes time to convince the modest dairy producer of the merit of his produce. There was a fairly good showing in baking and cooking, though the display in plants was conspicuous more for its scarcity than beauty, which was fairly good.

Men's and Boy's Outfitters, Oyen

The display of ladies work was creditable and the quantity was fairly large as it was of excellent workmanship in several cases. The boys and girls work in case of stock, etc., was of small concern as evidenced by the absence of exhibits.

The gopher killing contest drew out a long list of competitors who had a great record to their credit; some having destroyed upwards of two and three thousand. It was certainly some bunch of tails that the director in charge had to place on display, a result that should have a very beneficial effect in the disposal of a most noisome rodent element.

There was also a good showing of horse racing and programme of sports in front of the grandstand in the latter part of the afternoon. Not a dull feature of the day's attractions was the ever present and entertaining Red Cross nurses, who doubtless succeeded in addressing handsome returns for the most worthy enterprise they represented.

The crowd of visitors were well looked after, during the evening when Mr. Todd, the manager of the Opera house, showed that wonderful diapic-ture "The White Trail," after which a dance was given and over two hundred people were present. The music, which was delightful, was supplied by

Locals And Personals

Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Paul left last Saturday for Chinook where the Doctor will practice. His news of their departure from our midst comes as somewhat of a surprise, but the friends of Dr. and Mrs. Paul extend their best wishes, while regretting to lose them as valuable citizens.

Arthur Munson, who was at one time assisting in Hart's store here, is now employed by the Asotin Lumber Company at Corvallis.

A serious prairie fire occurred last week about ten miles south of Oyen destroying about eighteen hundred acres of pasture. W. Hedges was one of the worst sufferers losing a number of acres of pasture. At present the origin of the fire is unknown.

Mrs. Newton F. Partridge of Sinaluta, Sask., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snell of Spring Valley.

Dr. Paul sold his residence on Second Avenue to Dr. Swartzlander.

The Oyen Methodist Sunday school picnic will be held Wednesday, August 16th. Races and games will be the order of the day. The teachers and members of the Sunday school extend a hearty invitation to the older folks in town to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morrell received the news that their son, William, who enlisted for active service some time past, has been promoted to sergeant.

Among those who attended the stampede at Empress last week were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gillespie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Maytee, of Camington, Ont., announce the engagement of their daughter, Laura D., to Rev. Geo. A. Steele, B.A., Alderson, Alberta, marriage to take place late in August.—The Christian Guardian.

We are glad to welcome back Mr. F. W. Webster after his sojourn in the States.

Messrs. B. E. Kelly and A. J. Woods (Winnipeg) motored to Youngstown Wednesday on official business.

A very successful Sunday school picnic was held at Kirkwall on Thursday last. A good programme of races, games and baseball was gone through, in which nearly everybody took part. A splendid supper was provided by the ladies of the Red Cross. The most interesting item on the day's programme was a presentation to Mr. Robt. Marsden of a Morris rocker chair, accompanied by an address. The gift was in recognition of his services as teacher of the Bible class. Mr. Marsden has held that position for the last eight years. The presentation was made by the Rev. R. N. Finlay.

W. A. Annis of Excel shipped a carload of cattle recently. This is the first shipment of cattle sent from Excel.

Mr. Jackson Walton of the Holland-Canada Mortgage Co. is in town making numerous inspections in this district.

"The list of Fair prize winners will be published in an early issue of The Oyen News."

Several from here attended the Chautauqua at Alusk. It has been asked to come back.

Mr. Gorman, School Inspector, Calgary, was a visitor in town yesterday.

Bob Smith, manager of this paper, will leave for Edmonton where his wife is. Chester E. Moffet will be in charge during the absence of Mr. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Heron, of Alusk, were in town yesterday.

OIL STOVE EXPLODES; SETS FIRE TO HOUSE

Chas. Nelson, a farmer living about six miles south of Oyen, had the misfortune to lose his home and contents by fire caused by an oil stove exploding and setting fire to the house on Thursday evening last.

It appears that Mr. Nelson came into the house to light the stove and put a kettle to boil water for supper. In the meantime he went out to unload some hay in the barn and on his return in about fifteen minutes he found the place in flames. The loss is estimated at about a thousand dollars.

LOVEVALE ITEMS

The amount donated to the Red Cross as the result of the Union picnic held on the Sounding Creek on July 19 was $101.93.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Robbe expect to leave the district in about two weeks for the States, where they will spend the winter. It is their intention to return in the spring.

A social evening was spent in the Lovevale schoolhouse on Tuesday evening last in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Stearns and family, who are shortly leaving for Vanderhoof, B.C. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stearns will be greatly missed in this district, as they have always been a great help in the social affairs of the community. Mr. Stearns has been president of the Lovevale U.F.A. and chairman of the school board, and has filled both of these positions to the satisfaction of everybody concerned. The people of Lovevale all feel sorry that Mr. and Mrs. Stearns are leaving the district and wish them every success in the new country to which they are going.

Mr. Clarke, teacher of Rural Center school, will give a lecture on the war on Friday, August 9, in the schoolhouse. Mr. Clarke is a returned soldier, and has spent sixteen months in the trenches as a bomb thrower, when he got severely wounded and received an honorable discharge. This lecture should be very interesting and instructive, as Mr. Clarke will be in a position to give the actual conditions in France, as well as some of his experiences while in the trenches.

OYEN POLICE COURT

Paul Simiuk, a coal shoveler employed on the C. N. R. coal dock at Oyen, was charged with stealing gasoline from the C.N.R. near the coal shed. A preliminary hearing was held before J.P.'s Whitlock and Robinson on Thursday last. After considerable evidence had been produced by Mr. T. Brownlee, the Canadian Northern Railway Company's special agent Simiuk was remanded till Monday. Bail being allowed.

Matt Osharyk has also been arrested with a similar offence was apprehended at Empress and brought to Oyen to stand trial. He appeared before Magistrates Whitlock and Robinson on Monday last and pleaded guilty.

As it was the first offence on the part of both men the Court did not impose a sentence of imprisonment but allowed them off on full restitution being made to the C. N. R. Company for the gasoline taken and paying costs.

For sometime past considerable pilfering has been going on around the C. N. R. coal sheds and with regard to other railway property, and the local merchants have been compelled to make complaints with regard to shipment of goods being found short. The Canadian Northern Railway Co. is determined to put a stop to this and steps are being taken to carry this out. It is possible that other similar conviction will be obtained before long.

A Step In The Right Direction

Our new progressive Councillors were out last Friday afternoon with the fire chief Chas. L. Dalton overhauling the fire fighting apparatus. During the afternoon Mr. Dalton gave a demonstration in manipulating the engine before a number of citizens and explained fully the working of the machine so that in case of a fire any of the men would be able to render help in any way possible. The fire chief also suggested that the Council pass a by-law which would give them power to severely fine anyone who in going to a fire could not assist in helping to pull the engine to scene of the fire. This, he said, was the duty of every citizen, that as soon as the alarm was given every person should go to the fire station and get the engine to the fire as quickly as possible, and that the fire chief and his assistant should go right to the fire so that when the engine arrived they would be ready to fight the fire at once.

At this meeting it was decided that the Councillors together with the fire chief select men for the fire brigade, also to make definite arrangements for having a fire practice once a month.

After the demonstration the citizens who were present were invited by Mr. McArthur to his ice-cream parlor where he served them all with a delicious glass of ice-cream, which was repeated by the late Reeve, J. Howard Alexander.

The following men have been selected for the fire brigade:

Fire Chief—Chas. L. Dalton, Assistant Fire Chief—E. P. Barbour, Nozzlemen—Messrs. S. A. Miller and C. A. Giddens, Engineers—A. Corless and Wm. Lannon, Head Axeman—T.W. Johnston, Tankmen—Messrs. May, Hutecheon, McKay and M. M. McDonald.
